

What's coming soon in Jinfo

Research focus

Jinfo Research focuses on a different area of information strategy every calendar quarter:

- Stake your claim in the success of data analytics
(January - March 2018)

Is your information team brought into data analytics projects and asked to contribute to data strategy? Find out how you can ensure your team's credentials and skills help bring projects in on time, to budget and that your team helps translate business needs into manageable projects.

- The information team with the right stuff
(April - June 2018)
